Give the Gift of Beauty this Holiday Season!

"You Give so much to Others, it's Time You did Something for Yourself. Get Smoother, Brighter Skin and a more Relaxed and Refreshed Face. A Younger looking You!"

-Dr. Fiona Wright

Q Is it the dry indoor air? The cooler weather? Somehow my skin looks and feels dry and lifeless – how do I breathe new life into my middle aged skin?

A As the temperature falls, we spend our time indoors with lower humidity, and it shows on our face. During the winter, our glow is gone and you see the damage done by years of Texas sun. The first step is to hydrate – both by drinking more fluids and using high quality moisturizers and skin care products. That will plump you up a bit, but it's only a start.

My patients rely on me to help them manage their aging, so they look their best from age 30 to age 80. I personally manage the treatment path for each patient based on an in-depth consultation and the knowledge of each person's goals and desires. If you are looking for a more relaxing "Holiday Fix", then my Anti-aging Hydrating Facial is the answer!

Medical Facials are still the most consistent service offered for quality skin care. Inspired by understanding the needs of the entire body, our treatments incorporate my award-winning and exclusive Fiona Wright MD Skincare line designed to blend the science of medicine and leading edge dermatological research with the beauty of nature and botanical traditions. Our customized physician directed facials offer the latest skincare technology with medical grade concentrated ingredients to repair, nourish and protect your skin.
